Worker's Comp Rebate

The Ohio Bureau of Worker's Compensation announced the a one-time rebate for private employers and public-taxing districts that will total approximately $1.5 billion.

Most rebates will equal 85 percent of the employer's premium for the policy year ending in June 30, 2017. BWC will begin sending checks in July. Private employers in the Group-Retrospective Rating program will receive their checks in the fall.

Who will be eligible for the rebate?

Both private employers and public employer taxing districts that pay into the State Insurance Fund are eligible for the rebate. Generally, the employer must have been billed premium for the policy year ending June 30, 2017, and be current in meeting their policy requirements.

How will the plan impact local governments and schools?

Local governments and schools have benefited from three $1 billion rebates since 2013 and a $15 million rebate for Public Work Relief Employees' Fund. This rebate will add an estimated $48 million to schools and $111 million to local governments.

May Meeting Recap

THANK YOU to Frog Hauling and Sunny 95 for co-hosting our May Membership Meeting, and to Chris Forgy, with Columbus Radio Group for presenting our educational topic!

Why Ventilation is so important, what ventilation removes, how to know what size motor you need, how far can you run a duct, and the different types of ventilation -- presented by Cathy Polta of Big Sandy Superstore, Kitchens. Inspired. HVAC industry expert Hal Mullins of M. L. Heating will cover the more advanced portion of this topic by explaining why return air is so important in heavier-duty applications, why coding has changed, and all about codes and regulations as it pertains to venting today. The total course is under an hour.
